HEARTLESS MURDER SHOCKS THIS ENTIRE COMMUNITY

J. H. Doolittle Victim of Foul Murder by His Own Kinsman

Summoned by a hurried call Thursday afternoon from a Wellesley Park house, a posse of officers from the sheriff's office, including deputy sherrifs Laracou, Meeks and officers Collins, McAuliffs, Woods, and Kreiss of the local police department and state officer James Logan as well as several men of the town, who volunteered their services, hurried to the home of James H. Doolittle on Edgewood road of this city, only to find Doolittle laying dead on the floor with several hatchet wounds in his head. A further search of the house revealed Mrs. Doolittle bound hand and foot in an upper room, and James Moore, a nephew of the Doolittles, locked in a closet of another room with a bullet wound through his head.

The story of the tradegy as told to the police by J. C. Doolittle, son of the murdered man, was as follows: The night before Moore had came to visit his relatives. Moore had been in the laundry business in San Francisco, and during his career had drawn rather heavily upon the resources of his uncle, who had financed him for years. The family was assembled in the breakfast room on Wednesday morning, waiting for Moore to come down from above. Moore entered the room carrying a revolver, and ordered the family to throw up their hands. Thinking that their nephew was joking, the Doolittles laughed and told him to sit down to breakfast. "You won't think it's a joke when I get through with you," he exclaimed, and ordered his aunt to tie his uncle with a rope, which he had brought with him, in the meantime covering his cousin with the revolver.

After Doolittle had been tied, he ordered his aunt and cousin to go upstairs and then tied them in separate rooms. This occured at nine o'clock in the morning. Having the family secured, Moore next went to work ransacking the house, at which task he employed himself for several hours, battering the silverware and loading it into sacks, gathering up what jewelry he could find, and preparing to make away with anything of value he could find.

Just before noon, young Doolittle managed o free himself, and jumping from a second story window, ran to a neighbor's house where he turned in the alarm.

The young man says that he heard a dull thud below, and knew that the ingrate was killing his father.

Doolittle was a native of Maine, but had been in California for the last fifty years. For many years he had conducted the Occidental hotel in San Francisco, and had managed the Peninsula hotel in San Mateo. For three and a half years he had resided in Redwood City, at the place on Edgewood road, where he was murdered. Doolittle had been retired from business for some time.

When the sheriff's posse arrived, they found Moore in the upper room of the house from which he shot two shots at the police. When he was found he had already sent a bullet through his head and was near the point of death. He was taken to the hospital, where he died at noon yesterday. The inquest upon the body of the murdered man will be held today at ten o'clock. The body is now in the hands of the Layng & Tinney Undertaking Company.

McCANN OPENS NEW TRACT

Mark McCann has purchased the forty acre tract on the highway above Beresford and opposite the Nursery of McRorie & McLaren and belonging to the Forbes estate. Mr. McCann is to sub-divide the property at once and place it upon the market in small parcels to suit buyers.

LOCAL BRICKLAYER DIES SUDDENLY HERE

Richard Bobby, local, colored bricklayer, died suddenly at his home on Elm street this city, late Tuesday evening. Bobby had been suffering from heart trouble for some time, but had not considered his condition serious enough to warrant summoning medical attention. Tuesday afternoon he was stricken with a severe attack, and sent for a physician, but was too far gone when assistance arrived, and passed away shortly afterward.

The deceased was a native of Texas, and would have been 54 years old tomorrow. For a number of years he had been carrying on a flourishing business here as a brick contractor, and many of the homes of Redwood City owe their heartstones to his workmanship.

Bobby is survived by a widow, Mrs. Winifred Bobby, and four young children. The funeral was held Tuesday from the parlors of the Layng & Tinney Undertaking Company, interment was in Unino cemetery.

A secret is something that has no value unless it is told.

County Superintendent of Schools Roy W. Cloud will go to Riverside today to attend the annual convention of County and City Superintendents of Schools. The school superintendents are required by law to attend his meeting. The convention will be held at the Mission Inn.

Legion to Hold "Open Nights"

Plans have been formulated by the local post of the American Legion to hold an open night on October 22, to which the wives, mothers, daughters, sisters and lady friends of the Legionaires are invited. The affair will be held in the fire house and will, from all accounts, be a most enjoyable occasion.

A tentative program has been arranged, and although no definite announcemment has been made as to what the numbers on the program will be, it is understood that it will include an exhibition by the Boy Scouts of their work, a boxing bout by Choke Torres and George Smith, aerial tumbling acts by the Landrum Brothers, and musical numbers by Miss Marie McAuliffe and Irving Cooper.

After the program, refreshments will be served and dancing enjoyed, and for the dancing, music has been secured that will be as a surprise, according to an announcement made by adjuntant Frank Thompson yesterday. "The music," said Thompson, "will be something new, and unique. We can promise a treat to those who like dancing."

LOCAL HAPPENINGS OF GENERAL INTEREST FOR WEEK

Paul Ortmeir, proprietor of the Sequoia on Main street, is retiring after successfully conducting the place for the past two years. A gentleman from San Francisco has leased the place and will conduct it as a dining room in connection with the hotel.

Mrs. H. W. Lown is in a santitarium as the result of an auto accident this week, in which she and her niece, Miss Panilla Ferriss, were injured. Miss Ferriss was able to return home. The ladies were riding with some companions near Mountain View when the machine skidded, and the accident resulted.

Charles Lynch, prominent city attorney, and high officer of the N. S. G. W., was in town this week attending to business matters.

Will Tribolet of this city was taken to the hospital this week suffering from a paraletic stroke.

Mrs. Lucille Beardsley, the accomodating saleslady at the Enterprise Bakery, turned her ankle while going down the steps of her home last week, and as a result was laid up for several days. The patrons of the bakery missed her pleasant smile and cheerful greeting while she was on the sick list.

Miss Lauretta Williams was able to resume her work at the local school Monday after an enforced absence because of a severe case of quinsy sore throat.

A Ford and a Dort had a set-too at the junction of the Woodside road and the Highway last Saturday afternoon that resulted in a draw. The Ford was coming from Woodside—the Dort was going to Stanford. Neither saw the other. After the Ford stove in the front of the Dort, it got real devilish and jumped clean across the road and tried to wreck an egg truck. The latter was too big for it, however, and so Henry lost a front wheel and mashed his fender.

"Have you heard of the Boogy-Man?

Have you seen the wierd apparitions floating over Redwood City the last few nights?

Or, perhaps, you have heard them as their flowing robes brushed through the trees. And did you have a funny thrilly feeling run up and down your spine, or feel a cold "something" brush across your cheek?

From all indications, the "spooks" will be out in full force some night soon, and one of these ghostly creatures has whispered that all of the witches, goblins and ghosts of Boogy-Land will be at the Methodist Church here on Saturday evening, October 27th, to hold a final rally before venturing out on their annual spook night. This year they invite everyone to be there at eight o'clock to be initiated into the mysterious of "spookdum."

The initiation fee will be $25, they tell us, and if we please them, we shall be fed the nut of superstition, and be allowed to join the mysterious order of the Cracked Skull.

Bank Examiner Cunningham was entertained upon his visit to town this week, to examine the accounts of the Bank of Italy, by the younger members of the staff of both local banks. The affair was strictly informal.

LA HONDA RANCHER PASSES AWAY SUDDENLY

REDWOOD CITY CARRIERS TO GET HALF HOLIDAY

Redwood City mail carriers were assured of a half holiday on Saturdays, when it became known this week that more than 600 patrons of the Redwood City office have signified their approval of the plan on post cards recently sent to them.

The "preference cards" asked the vote of the public on the matter of a half holiday for he men. More than 600 favorable replies were received with but four dissenting votes, it was announced today.

TO CELEBRATE ARMISTICE

Armistice Day will be celebrated in Redwood City in due and ancient form this year, three days being set aside for the purpose. The first day of the celebration will be taken care of by the Boy Scouts, who will have Chief Hansen, scout chief of the Bay district to address them on the occasion. Chief Hanson will speak on scout work, and on the reason for the boy scouts.

On the tenth, the Legion will have a dance and card party, and on the eleventh a turkey shoot in the woods of the golf club will form the recreation of the day.

B. D. Weeks Dies Early in Week at La Honda Home

Bert Weeks, pioneer of the county, and one of the best known of the ranchers of the mountain district, passed away at his home at La Honda last Monday. Born in the southern end of San Mateo county when it was still a portion of Santa Cruz county, Weeks spent practically all his life close to his original home. When a young man, he married Miss Emma John, daughter of Burnes John, owner of the adjoining ranch, and another pioneer of the county.

Together with his wife he went to the mines of Cour de Alaine in Idaho, and there gathered a considerable fortune, with which he returned and acquired the ranch where he has since lived, from his father, Bob Weeks. Since that time he has spent his time in farming his holdings at La Honda.

Bert Weeks was the son of Bob Weeks, well known rancher of the county, who in 1875 was elected supervisor from his township. It was during his term as supervisor, and due to his efforts and energy, that the La Honda road, now known as the "old grade" was finished, it having before been nothing more than an overgrown path.

The subject of this article was a man of stirling character, who has left an indelible impress upon the neighborhood where he spent his alloted term of life. He is survived by the following children: Percy R. Weeks, unti recently of La Honda, but now living in Palo Alto, and Mrs. George Fry, also of Palo Alto, his widow, Mrs. Emma L. Weeks, also survives him, as does a brother, Asa Weeks, well known rancher of Pescadero.

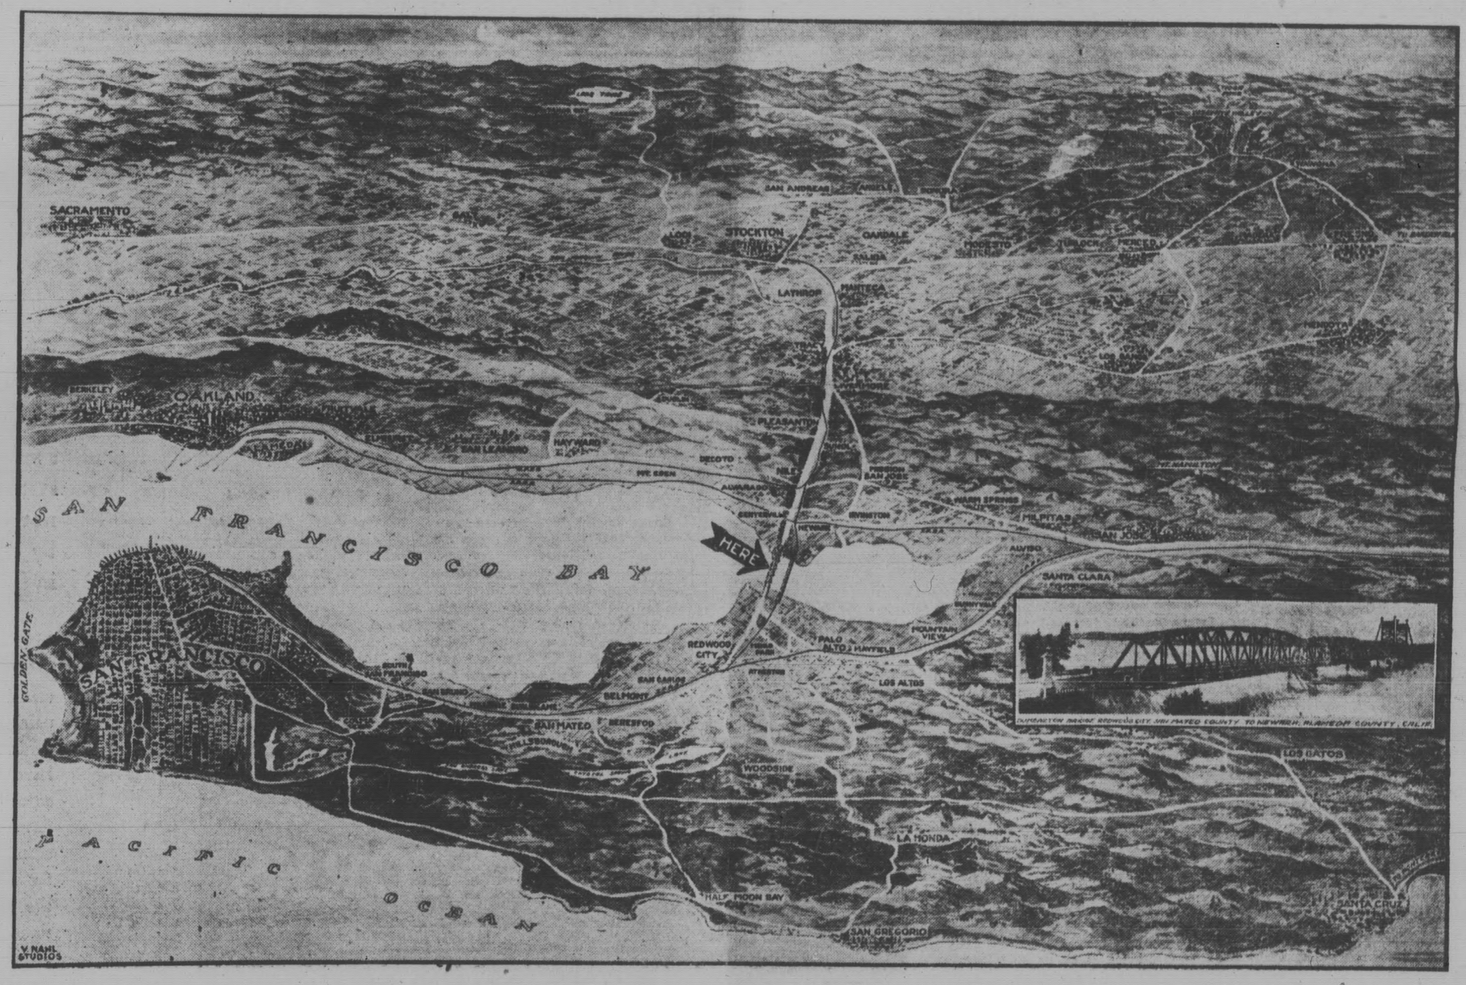
The funeral was held last Wednesday in Palo Alto, and was private in character, only the immediate relatives of the family being in attendance. The services were held in the parlors of an undertaking firm of Palo Alto.

HEARING ON PETITION POSTPONED BY SUPERVISORS

The only matter of importance to be brought up before the Board of Supervisors at their regular meeting last Monday was the incorporation of Menlo Park. Attorney Malcolm, representing the petitioners, had a previous meeting requested, that as it was stated in the petition that this matter would be heard on Monday, the 8th, that the matter be heard on that date, in order to maintain its jurisdiction. The hearing was formal, however, and consisted merely of the reading by the clerk of the petition and the affidavit of the Times-Gazette, establishing the publication of the petition the required number of times. After these matters had been disposed of, Supervisor Hickey moved that the matter be postponed to the next meeting as Monday was claims day, when the attention of the supervising body is centered upon the passing of the claims for the month.

Attorney Reddington, who represented the residents of Atherton, at the time the Atherton petition was before the supervisors, now appeared before the board, and requested to be informed when the matter of the Menlo Park incorporation would be taken up. Reddington stated that he was representing a number of residents of Menlo Park who were opposed to the incorporation idea, and wanted to know the date of the hearing in oreder that his clients might be present. Supervisor MacBain replied that no definate hearing could be set at that time as it was the desire of the board that all members be present when the matter was to be settled, and as Supervisor Thompson was absent from the county, it could not be said definately when the matter would be set. MacBain stated, however, that November 5th would probably be the date when the hearing would take place. As the matter now stands, the hearing of the petition will be postponed from one meeting to the next until the board decides to settle the vexed question. The appearance of Attorney Reddington as legal advisor for an opposing element in Menlo Park marked a new factor in the matter as hitherto there had been no organized opposition to the project. No date can at present be prophisied for the election.

TERRITORY TRIBUTARY TO THE DUMBARTON BRIDGE



The Dumbarton Bridge will be the most economical and convenient Trade and traffic Route between the San Francisco Peninsula and Central California, enabling the Lincoln Highway to traverse the Peninsula and Terminate in San Francisco.

R. J. WELCH OUTLINES SKYLINE DEVELOPMENT

Speaking in San Francisco this week, Supervisor Welch of San Francisco, chairman of the Joint Highway District Commission, which is constructing the Skyline Boulevard, stated that the new road will make San Francisco the terminus of a second trunk line when completed. Supervisor Welch outlined the project os follows:

"Harvey M. Toy, chairman of the State Highway Commission, has advised our highway commission that the Skyline boulevard is to be a main highway," declared Supervisor Welch.

"The highway, according to Toy, is to be completed to Woodwardia, between Los Gatos and Santa Cruz. From this point a highway will be constructed connecting the Skyline boulevard with Gilroy, Salinas and the Pacheco Pass highway. This will make the Skyline boulevard of inestimable value to San Francisco, both commercially and from a scenic standpoint.

"That the Skyline boulevard, which I have advocated for years, will be of value in relieving traffic congestion down the peninsula was forcibly demonstrated last Sunday when thousands of machines were diverted to this road.

"The second unit to be constructed about January 1, 1924. This section will be twelve and one-half miles will pass over the noted Crystal Springs dam for 600 feet."

In the above statements, Supervisor Welch has dwelt at some length upon the advantage which will accrue to his own city from the construction of the new road. Greater benefits, however, will be reaped by the outlaying sections through which the new road will pass. Sections of our county hitherto inaccessable to the general public will be brought into the public's eye, and tracts will be opened for settlement, which would not otherwise be available because of lack of transportation facilities.

JOHN L. HARRINGTON, ENGINEER OF GREAT SPAN TO RETURN MONDAY FROM EASTERN CITIES WITH DATA AND PLANS

John Lyle Harrington, the engineer for the proposed Dumbarton bridge, will be in Redwood City on Monday next to consult with the people of this community concerning the construction of the bridge. Mr. Harrington will have an array of data and figures and all should hear him. The construction of the bridge means much to Redwood City and vicinity. Meetings are to be held during the coming week at Burlingame, San Mateo, Palo Alto, Runnymede and other towns of the peninsula. The promoters of the enterprise wish to raise the sum of $800,000 by stock subscriptions, the balance of the two million dollars will be provided for by capitalists, who see in the project a handsome return on the money thus invested. It is believed that Mr. Harrington will begin awarding contracts in less than sixty days, so that work may reasonably be expected to start on the first of the year. The driving of the first pile will be the occasion of a big event for San Mateo county. It will be under the auspices of the Automobile Association of San Francisco. A monster parade will take place from the city and the pile will be put down with regal ceremony after which a barbecue will take place. It is estimated that 25,000 people will attend the day of feasting and celebrating. It will be a day long to be remembered for history will be made. Two large valleys will be united by the bridge. The great San Joaquin territory will be brought closer to this community and hundreds from the hot valley will locate here. The people have long looked forward to the construction of this bridge. When the first pile is put in, their dream will be realized.

LOCAL MEAT MARKET UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

The Central Market, the meat market which has been run by Ole Johnson, has changed hands this week, and will from now on be under the management of Warner & Hallett. H. E. Hallett, who was formerly a partner in the Portola Market, has been engaged by the proprietors of the store as manager.

REDWOOD YOUTH DIES IN SAN JOSE, SUNDAY

George Gilbert Velacco, 17 year old youth of this city, passed away in San Jose last Sunday following an illness of long duration. The boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Velacco of 213 Phelps street, and was a freshman in the high school last year. His attendance at school was, however, made impossible by ill health, and he has been at the home of Mrs. White, wife of the painter who formerly conducted the paint shop at the corner of Main and Maple streets here. It was at the home of Mrs. White that the youth died.

The funeral was held last Tuesday from Mt. Carmel Catholic Church, where a mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul. Interment was in Holy Cross cemetery in Menlo Park.

NEW MEAT MARKET HERE

A new meat market was started in Redwood City this week, operated by two local men who are well known in the community. The proprietors of the new market are V. Brown, well known rancher of this county, and the proprietor of the Skyline ranch, and A. Nelson, who for several years has been employed by the City Market in this city. Both of the men entering this new venture are thoroughly acquainted with the business in which they are engaging, and this knowledge coupled with the new and modern equipment which is being installed augers fair for the success of the new market.

DUMBARTON BRIDGE ENGINEER COMING

According to advices received this week, John Lysle Harrington, engineer of the Dumbarton Bridge Association, is due to arrive here on Monday. Mr. Harringon is due for a lively time, according to reports, for it is planned to receive him at a luncheon meeting at Niles on the day after his arrival. At the Niles meeting all the Chambers of Commerce of Alameda County will be present and the plans for the bridge will be set before the business men of the Bay section.

On Tuesday a luncheon has been prepared for the bridge-builder by the Palo Alto Chamber of Commerce. It is expected that Harrington will have some important announcements to make when he arrives concerning the financing of the bridge.

ATTENTION

An extremely interesting and educational exhibit will be held in Redwood City, Tuesday, October 17, at the Fire House Auditorium, 8 p. m.

This exhibit is presented by the California Electrical Co-operative Campaign and represents the latest word in "window merchandising," showing all the color lighting effects, flood and spot lighting and new ideas in trimming windows.

It therefore behooves every merchant in Redwood City to see this exhibit, as it is a means of making our city very attractive.

NEXT TUESDAY'S ELECTION

On next Tuesday the electors of Redwood City will have the opportunity of expressing their approval or disapproval of the proposition of bonding the town for $30,000 for the purchase of the Redwood City Water Company's water works. Whether the voter shall favor this measure or not is entirely in the hands of the voter himself. But it is the duty of every elector, before he casts his ballot next Tuesday, to get a fair and impartial view of the facts upon which to base his conclusions. The facts of the matter are as follows: The plant of the Redwood City Water Company is valued at 36,500, according to the State Railroad Commission, the distribution system belongs to the town, according to the ruling of the railroad commission, the town cannot change its source of supply without paying the water company a fair price for its equipment and interest on its investment, the town has been paying 18½ cents for water and selling it for 30 cents. NOW, taking all these facts together, we find that a large proportion of the city's expenses is being paid out of the profit made on the water, which at first glance would appear to be a fine thing in as much as it reduces taxes. But who pays the bill? The resident land owner who tries to make his place attractive. The land owner whose place is vacant land, the non-resident property owner benefits from the municipal improvement made by the user of water. Is it a fair system? Higher taxes will be born alike by all property owners. Taxes derived from water users alone stirke at one class, the home owner, who is willing to spend his own capital to improve his place. A vote for the bond issue will help to relieve this situation.

A TOWN IS KNOWN BY THE THINGS IT DOES

Redwood City has been known variously as the County Seat—the place where the Faith was built, and by a number of other applications. Since the laying of the High School corner stone, the idea has come to us that the people of this district should boost Redwood City because of its good schools. When you are telling your friends about the place say: "Oh yes, we have the finest high school in the state for a city our size."

Palo Alto is noted all over for Stanford University, Berkeley is known because it is the site of the University of California. We will soon have a magnificient high school on a wonderful tract of land. Let's refer to our town as the home of the Sequoia High School. Then the school will haye to live up to its reputation. Pretty soon thereafter we will have people coming here to settle because of our fine educational opportunities.

A GOOD ASSET FOR A SCHOOL

In reading the accounts of the recent teachers institute, we notice that considerable space is given to the numbers rendered by the orchestra of the San Mateo Union High School. If an orchestra is good for San Mateo, why wouldn't it be good for Redwood City? We should be able to develope talent here just as it has been developed in our neighboring school.

A school band or orchestra can render real service to a locality. It is a good advertising talk and helps to bring the school work prominently before the public.

The work of an orchestra is also of a great educational value as it developes a love of music, not only in the members of the aggregation composing the players, but it also tends to give an appreciation of music to the other students. Why not have an orchestra here?

GOOD ROAD FUND

San Mateo County has just received a large sum of money as its share of the state motor license fees. With the new system of taxation now in force, the future amounts to be received will be much larger. Again we would urge the people of San Mateo County to consider the purchase of the old Ocean Shore right-of-way, and the development of same as an ocean boulevard.

What helps one part of San Mateo County will help every other part. We on the eastern edge of the county have fine systems of state and county roads. The coast side has a fairly good main road, but it travels over a high mountain, where the grade and precipices annually take their toll of lives because of the narrow turns and general contour of the right-of-way. We think the proposition of purchasing the Ocean Shore right-of-way is worthy of earnest consideration.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE AND THE FOREIGN DEBT

We are glad that President Coolidge has taken the stand he has upon the payment of the foreign debt, caused by the late war. We realize that it will be a great burden for the foreign powers to pay back the money which they borrowed. We feel, though, that they would lose some of their self respect should they be allowed to wipe out their obligatioin. Further than this they would probably not have the right attitude about future obligations should we free them from their responsibilities. If a man or a nation has something that he has to work for, he will work harder than he otherwise would, so that he may finally be freed of that obligation.

By all means make them pay their debts.

DAVID LLOYD GEORGE AND PETER B. KYNE

San Mateo County should be real chesty over the fact that Lloyd George chose as his personal guide and conductor Peter B. Kyne, the well known California writer. Peter Kyne was born and raised on the coast side of San Mateo County. His father and brother still reside in the old family home there. He never attended any school other than the little district school at Moss Beach. He had but one teacher in his school days, Miss Rose Meehan, who is now principal of the Central school, San Mateo. So Peter Kyne is a product of our own, and we should be proud that this new honor has come to him.

S. P. ADDS ELEVEN NEW PASSENGER TRAINS

Eleven more trains are to be placed in peninsula commutation service under a change in schedules effective October 21. There will be three new trains from San Francisco to Mayfield and two new trains from San Francisco to San Jose; three new trains from Mayfield to San Francisco, and three new trains from San Jose to San Francisco.

Announcement of the increased service was made yesterday by G. L. McFaul, general passenger agent for the Southern Pacific Company. Details of the schedules have not been completely worked out yet, according to McFaul, but they will be made public in the next few days.

This is the fourth time this year that Southern Pacific has placed additional trains on peninsula commuter service.

"We are giving constant attention down the peninsula and in the East Bay region," said McFaul in announcing the additional trains on peninsula runs. "Peninsula residents should know that they have the best commutation service, considering both rates, convenience and comfort, in the country. It is an asset which should help materially in building up the peninsula region."

"With the addition of new trains we will have in local peninsula service 29 trains daily out of San Francisco and 28 trains daily into San Francisco. The new trains will give such additional service that patrons can get a train to and from San Jose and San Francisco and intermediate points at virtually any time of the day or evening."

"We have comfortable, electrically lighted coaches with no draughts during the cold weather; fast schedules are in effect; our principal stations are heated, and patrons are sheltered from the rain when waiting for trains; a fine "on time" performance is maintained and every safety precaution is taken."

"Most of the new trains to be placed in service will run on Sunday as well as other days. People living in San Francisco, across the Bay or down on the peninsula who have business in South San Francisco will find the schedule very convenient."

The special services of the Odd Fellows at the Congregational church last Sunday was well attended and interesting. Sunday evening next, Rev. R. H. Kennedy of San Mateo will occupy the pulpit, and the pastor, Rev. Mr. Marr, will preach in the morning.

Jim Crowe has been specially appointed to preside at the burial of Democracy next November. Those who know him are sure that he can officiate on that sad occasion with signal ability and maganimity truly wonderful.

A Hot clam chowder at the "Old Corner" Saturday evenings. Ham and eggs, coffee, sandwiches all hours of the day. Eureka beer 5c. Call in tonight.

Mrs. Carolan recently received an additional three million dollars from the profit of the Pullman Company, Illinois.

R. H. McGowan killed fifty-five ducks on the marsh last Saturday. He claims the championship, and defies any hunter to beat the record during the season.

Einestine has a new line of men's boys' and youths' clothing; down pillows 50c a piece, all styles of woolen dress goods 15c up, see our neckties.

WHERE THEY'RE FLYING

Now that the duck season is in full swing, thousands of automobiles are daily visiting the territory where the scatter-gun artists are now collecting the annual income tax from Mr. and Mrs. Mallard, Mr. and Mrs. Teal and Mr. and Mrs. Sprig, according to George S. Grant, manager of the touring bureau of the California State Automobile Association.

With the co-operation of J. S. Hunter, assistant executive officer of the Fish and Game Commission, Grant has prepared information on the sections where non-members of gun clubs may try for the limit. Roads leading to all sections where ducks are plentiful have been signed by the Automoblie Association and additional road information may be had at any of the Association's eighteen offices in Northern and Central California.

The Sacramento Valley duck grounds are crowded, also the Suisun Marshes and the open water in the San Joaquin Valley. On the Coast in the Tomales Bay section and in the Elkhorn country sprig are reported abundant.

San Francisco and Oakland hunters can arrange to make the trip by automoblie to the duck country in the vicinity of Los Banos or Colusa. It is 120 miles to Colusa and 131 miles to Los Banos via the Pacheco Pass.

Grant advises duck hunters to remember that in order to keep out of trouble, it is necessary to comply with both the state and federal laws. Keep within the limit and do not kill shore birds commonly known as sandpipers, curlew, stilts, etc. The only shore bird that can be killed is the jacksnipe. All other are protected by both state and federal laws at all times of the year. Hunting licenses may be secured at any district office of the Automobile Association.

YOUNG PEOPLES' FELLOWSHIP FORMED AT ST. PETER'S

The Rev. Edward H. Molony, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Redwood City, returend on Saturday night from his brief vacation at Cazadero and filled his appointments in Redwood City, Belmont and San Carlos on Sunday.

At 6:30 P. M., St. Paul's Chapter, (Burlingame) of the Young People's Fellowship, accompanied by their rector, Rev. W. A. Brewer, visited St. Peter's and held a regular Fellowship meeting, conducted by its president, Miss Irene Farrell. Many of St. Peter's young people were present. After brief prayers and the Apostles Creed, Miss Farrell addressed the gathering on the subject: "How do the Church and the young people need each other," giving a very helpful talk. General discussion followed, many participating. Prayer was offered for the progress of the Fellowship.

At the close of the session a joint meeting was held and it was resolved to form a St. Peter's Chapter.

The following officers were elected: President, A. Walker; secretary, Homer Martine; treasurer, Dibbie Dearborn.

A committe was appointed to complete plans of organization. The Burlingame Chapter with its president will visit St. Peter's again for the 6:30 P. M. meeting on Sunday. It is hoped that all the young people of St. Peter's will be present at this meeting.

The Young People's Fellowship holds a position in the Episcopal Church similar to that of the Christian Endeavor and Epworth League in other churhces and cordially cooperates with these organizations in every forward movement for the youth of the community.

It is especially opportune at this time when St. Peter's is manifesting renewed activity and preparing to build a parish house, that her younger members should show this readiness to play their part in the church life. The building is largely for their use and enjoyment, and their quick response is an added incentive to the adult members of the congregation to push forward the good work to completion. The sermon on Sunday morning will be on the text, "Go Forward."

USE OF GAS APPLIANCES INCREASING

According to reports filed with the American Gas Association, more than $40,000,000 worth of appliances will be sold to the public in 1923 by gas companies alone, exclusive of sales made by dealers who do not report to the association. This means that for the 9,200,000 meters in service, more than four dollars per meter will be spent this year for ranges, water heaters, lighting units, room heaters and other appliances.

To take care of unprecedented service demands, the association says that gas companies are successfuly financing a building and expansion program that will enable them in 1923 to add to their service mains several thousand industrial shops and plants and about 400,000 household customers.

How Power Rates are Figured

POWER rates in California are not fixed on a cost-plus system. Profits or dividends are not guaranteed to the companies by the Railroad Commission in fixing rates.

In order to succeed the power companies must keep down expenses by efficient management without impairing the service. Some power companies have failed, which could not have happened if profits were guaranteed in the rates. Power companies pay for any mistakes or waste they commit. Consumers never pay more for power than in the judgment of the Railroad Commission it ought to cost.

There is not and cannot be any profiteering in the power business in California under our present system. The rates are low for the service rendered.

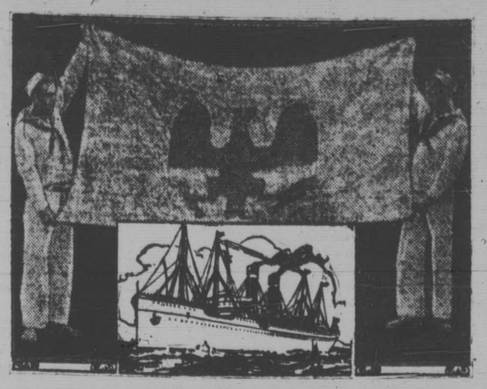
PACIFIC COAST TO SEE FAMOUS ENSIGN



Oldest American Steamship Flag in the Atlantic, to be Flown by Panama Pacific Line Ships

HOUSE flags are valued by shipping companies as symbols of business identity, and also for their sentimental associations. Some of the house flags flown by the clipper ships in the days of '49 are now treasured in Eastern homes or museums as souvenirs of an American shipping era now passed. Flags of steamship lines have taken their place.

One of the most famous steamship house flags is that of the American Line, pictured here. It was first flown on the original steamers of that line when they began operations between Philadelphia and Liverpool in 1871, and is the only house flag of an American steamship line that has been continuously in transatlantic service for more than half a century.

In a few weeks this famous ensign of trade and travel will be seen in the Pacific, on the ships of the Panama Pacific Line, which in November reopens a service between California ports and New York, by way of the Panama Canal, which was interrupted by the great war.

Three large ocean liners—the Manchuria, Kroonland and Finland—have been assigned to the new service by the International Mercantile Marine Company, which operates the Panama Pacific Line, and also several transatlantic lines.

As the Manchuria has flown the American Line house flag in transatlantic passenger service since the war, it has been decided to adopt that flag for the Panama Pacific Line. Its roughly outlined blue spread eagle on a white ground, familiar to hosts of Atlantic travelers, will fly over all three of the line's passenger ships, and also over its freighters, the Montauk and Montana. All five ships are of American build, and are worthy of the honored flag they will bring into the Pacific.

The first sailing of the new service from San Francisco will be that of the Kroonland November 5. The Finland will sail November 19, and the Manchuria December 10. First, second, intermediate and third class passengers will be carried, and all three ships have large freight capacity for California products.

NEWS OF MENLO PARK

Controller A. E. Roth of Stanford University announces that the 7000 acres of the old Stanford estate is to be sub-divided and sold. Practically all the Stanford holding in this vicinity, with the exception of the 1500 acres which will be held permanently for educational purposes, will be offered for sale. It is a question if the university will be able to give an absolute deed to the purchaser as Senator Stanford in deeding the vast property to the university provided that the land should always be held intact and not sold.

Roth returned yesterday from Los Angeles, where he had been in conference with nationally known authorities on city planning and landscape architecture. He discussed with them the development of a large portion of the campus into the finest residential district on the peninsula.

The board of trustees has had the project under consideration for more than a year, but what will be done in the future depends now upon what attitude the board will take toward Roth's further plans. A small tract in the Mayfield city limits, a mile from the university buildings, has already been offered for sale. If the rest of the farm is placed on the market, it will be offered a tract at a time.

"The possibilities of the old Stanford farm, when opened up, according to the latest plans, tax the imagination," said Roth, in commenting on the project after his return. "We can make a district that will be more beautiful than any residence district yet existing in this part of California.

"If the present tentative plans meet the approval of university authorities, more definite plans will be drawn up immediately for the new district.

"The general scheme of the Stanford campus will be followed throughout and the Stanford style of architecture will prevail in all structures erected on the tract. Experts will be engaged to lay out the roads with a view to making the most of the natural beauty of the hills.

"Restrictions will be made high enough to insure a high-grade type of building, but while provision will be made for many estates which will compare favorably with the best in the country, there will be sections opened for smaller homes. A golf course and recreation center will be included in the layout of the property.

"While it is only lately that actual steps toward opening up the university lands have been made, the proposition has been before the officers for a long time. If was the policy of the boartd that led to the leasing of a site on the highway for a new hotel."

It is expected that some of the home sites would be purchased by parents of students and prospective students at Stanford, people who want to be with the children while in college.

For some time past Menlo Oaks has been the Mecca for spooning parties. The wide spreading oaks for which the locality is famous is favorable for such parties who would come in automobiles to enjoy the cooling shades of the trees. Not long ago a bandit appeared and made a rich haul. This was repeated, but the affair was kept quite by the spooners. However, the officers of the county got wind of the escapade. An officer was sent to the aforesaid place one evening this week. He was accompanied by a young lady, and took up a position among the rest of the spooners with plans all laid to capture the hold-up man. About ten o'clock the bandit made his appearance and the very first man he tackled was the officer. Before that gentleman could secure his pistol he was covered with a gun by the masked man and ordered to give up his valuables, which he did with reluctance. The young lady passed over her jewels. The robber took the officer's pistol, unloaded it and tossed it away, ordering the guardian of the peace to leave. When he had gone some distance, the bandit disappeared in the darkness. The officer is described as a tall, handsome young man. Who is he?

The petition for the incorporation of Menlo Park came up before the board of supervisors last Monday, and was postponed, butwill be heard next Monday. It is to be hoped the supervisors will act upon it at that time and call an election in order to give the people an opportunity to vote upon the question. Let the matter be decided so that the community may get back to normalcy, and put a stop to the feeling that is being injected into the proposition. The longer the affair is in abeyance the more bitterness is being engendered. Let us have action gentlemen.

The pretty bungalow recently built by Mr. and Mrs. George Angus on Oak Grove avenue was sold this week to W. H. Witham, a wholesale merchant of San Francisco. The new owner will move his family into it shortly. It is one of the cosiest cottages in town.

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hamilton of this place gave a dinner to a number of friends from out of town. Mrs. Timothy Hopkins, president of the board of directors of the Stanford Clinic Auxiliary, and her associates on the board gave a reception Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Florence Cummings of New York, new director of the social service department of the Stanford Clinics and Hospital. The affair was given at the Stanford school for nursing in San Francisco.

L. H. Cook, an electrical contractor of Palo Alto and an experienced electrician, has purchased the electrical business of William Meyer and the store in the O'Keefe block. Mr. Meyer has moved to Oakland. His family will join him shortly. He has also disposed of his property in Valparaiso Park to Frank Derry. Mr. Cook came highly recommended as a good mechanic and a trustworthy businessman. He will do a brisk business in Menlo Park.

Judge Charles A. Shurtleff left on Thursday for Stockton to attend a session of the State Bar Association. He has been a member of the association for many years. At one time the judge was president of the San Francisco Bar Association, a position he filled with honor to himself and the association.

Mark Loughlin, the popular assistant station agent, has moved into his attractive new cottage in Valparaiso Park. The bungalow is cosy, neat and comfortable.

A. Simonini has bought the Cora Parker home on the highway. He is to improve the property.

Menlo Parlor, N. D. G. W., will give a card party in Duff and Doyle Hall on Thursday evening, October 18. Prizes will be given the winners.

Good bags of ducks are being brought to town almost daily. There has been a large flight of birds from the north recently. The present cold snap is responsible for this.

A few robins have arrived from the north, they making their appearance this week. The big flight will not take place until the heavy rains come.

The town council of Atherton held an important meeting last Tuesday evening, Mayor E. L. Eyre in the chair. Much important business was transacted. A building ordinance was passed and adopted restricting the size of structures to be erected in the municipality. Weeden Brothers were appointed building inspectors to see that the terms of the law are carried out to the leter. There will be no shacks at Atherton. All buildings will be of a unifirm size, and all buildings must comply with the new law. At the next meeting of the board of trustees a chief of police is to be appointed. The board is grooming a well known Atherton young man for the place. The new chief will be cautioned to look out for bootleggers and hot dog hijackers. They must give the City of Atherton a wide swarth. The trustees also adopted an ordinance zoning the district. No business of any kind will be allowed on the highway —hot dog stands and soft drink places must go. Atherton is to be the ideal residence district of the peninsula.

The Bear Gulch Water Company is troubled these days with the problem of providing a sufficient water supply for the vast increasing number of its patrons. The demands on the water system this summer was tremendpus. The company is arranging for an adequate supply of water for the next season. A cosy office has been established in the O'Keefe block by the company. The chief clerk is Miss Adah Scott, a charming and pretty lady, who attends to the wants of the hundred of patrons of the concern. Mr. Britton, the popular superintendent, is always on the job seeing to it that the rate payers get the very best of service. He is a valuable man for the company.

WOODSIDE NEWS

I wish all the boys and girls of Woodside might see the new aquarium recently opened in San Francisco's park. They may see there a wonderful collection of fishes in forms and colors never associated with the finny tribes; fishes that don't look like fishes at all, with square, flat heads and pointed noses and make believe tails, and decorated in colors that would put the most gorgeous butterflies to shame. These are mostly from the waters of the south seas, but in addition to these are all of the game fishes of our own land, whether salt or fresh water, the kind of fish that the boys like to catch and the girls like to eat.

The Woodside colony will soon welcome J. V. Neuman and family into its membership. Mr. Neuman has leased the Dr. Keenan place. This is a very attractive place with a splendid view of the mountains, the property sloping back to a creek at the rear. Mr. Neuman is fortunate to secure so desirable a location and Woodside is fortunate in securing Mr. Neuman.

LOS LOMITAS P. T. A. TO MEET WITH PALO ALTO

The Palo Alto Federation of which our P. T. A. recently joined, will meet Monday, October 14, 1923, in the Community house at Palo Alto, at 3:30 p. m. It is hoped that a large number of Los Lomitas members will attend.

Every third Thursday of each month members of Los Lomitas P. T. A. hold a sewing bee in the school house, working for a bazaar, which they plan to hold later in the season. Remember October 18 is the third Thursday.

Announcement was made this week that Henry Furman, local realtor who last week severed his connection with the firm of Witte & Furman, had bought the real estate and insurance business of Mrs. O. C. Simth, 336 Broadway. Furman expects to make extensive changes in the office and to enlarge the scope of the businness considerably.

CALIFORNIA TO RECEIVE $318,339.67 AS SHARE OF NATIONAL FOREST RECEIPTS

The State of California has received $318,339.67 from the United States Department of Agriculture, as its share of the receipts from national forest resources during the fiscal year 1923, according to an announcement by the department. Word to this effect has been sent to Governor F. W. Richardson. California contains 19 national forests located in various parts of the state. The total area amounts to 19,147,587 acres.

One-fourth of the money received by the department from timber sales, grazing permits, and other uses of national forest lands is turned over to the States in which such lands are located on a pro rata basis in accordance with an act of Congress. Such sums are for the school and road funds of the counties containing these lands.

The total sum turned over to all States containing national forests during the fiscal year 1923 amounted to $1,321,422. Twenty-seven States and Alaska shared in the distribution of this sum, which exceeded the annual average for the previous five years by about $250,000. Increased sales of timber were largely responsible for the record-breaking receipts of 1923.

WILL SEE U. S. FIRST

Rev. C. L. Peck and Mrs. Peck started on their journey to Florida, Monday, by way of the southern route in their Buick Special, which they purchased for the trip. They will be accompanied by their son, Bernard J. Peck, and his wife, who drove down from Portland in their machine and arrived here last Friday.

The Pecks expect to see a good part of the United States before they arrive at their destination. They will camp as they go and the first extended stop after leaving Los Angeles will be at Cincinnatti. From there they will go directly to Florida where they will reside for at least a year.

Mr. Peck has made many friends in this section and hopes at some time to return if only for a visit. It is to be hoped that he may as he and Mrs. Peck have endeared themselves to a large number of people in this community.

Cleaning Without Odor by the F. Thomas Process

Our many years of experience has taught us that it is impossible to do perfect cleaning with cheap, inferior methods. That is why we found it necessary to invest nearly $500,000 in the equipment of a plant and the establishment of an expert organization to do the quality of work demanded by our customers.

With the "F. Thomas Process" we not only remove every particle of dust but we return your garments without that usual disagreeable smell of gasoline. Every drop of gasoline we use in cleaning is redistilled and very highly refined.

Raw gasoline—the kind that you buy for your automobile—is full of heavy oils and unfit for cleaning fabrics. It is little better than ordinary distillate and leaves a sickening "gasoline" smell in your clothes
